About Sport dans la Ville

Sport dans la Ville is France's leading non-profit serving underprivileged children, teenagers and young adults through sports and job-readiness training. Founded in 1998, today we operate in 46 urban low-income neighborhoods. Through sports activities (soccer, basketball, hip hop, rugby and tennis) we impart the values of self-confidence, teamwork, dedication, leadership and hard work leading young people on the path towards a brighter future.

Around 7,500 young people aged from 6 to 25 are currently involved in our programs, including 2,000 children aged from 6 to 12.

Thanks to 22 years of experience of being in contact with underserved populations, Sport dans la Ville has created innovative and performing educational programs dedicated to serve the youth at every stage of their development.

Our mission is to empower young people with values and behavior to foster their chances to succeed in life. To do so, our leverage is sport.
